Gathering of Illinois Democrats at Peoria Preparatory to the State Convention.

The Delegates to the Democratic National Convention Beginning to Arrive in Chicago.

Ben Butler Confident that He Will Receive the Nomination—The Ticket of the Prohibitionists.

Other Political Notes.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS.
PEORIA, Ill., July 2.—To-day will be held the Democratic Convention. A large number of strangers are in the city, and every train brings in great additions to the crowd. Congressman Morrison arrived to urge the adoption of a free-trade platform and himself for delegate-at-large. General Black was also on hand with several friends, and announced that he was not a candidate for Governor, but coveted the honor of being a delegate-at-large. It is all but settled that Palmer will be one of the delegates-at-large, General Black another, and perhaps Congressman Morrison a third, although a bitter fight is being made on Morrison by delegates from his own section. Cook County will have but one representative among the delegates-at-large, and the general belief is that either Lyman Trumbull or Potter Palmer will be the man. Mr. Goudy is understood to be out of the race. Mayor Connelley, of Rock Island, will be temporary Chairman of the gathering, and it is believed that little delay will occur between the temporary organization and the holding of the State Committee has decided to ignore all kickers and to admit those who have regular credentials. Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, will probably be elected Governor by acclamation, Henry Senter is ahead for Lieutenant-Governor and Alford Grandford for the Treasuryship. There are six candidates for Attorney-General, and it is understood that the position will go to the Irish element.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.
CHICAGO, July 2.—The Louisiana delegation to the Democratic Convention, which was expected to arrive last evening, did not put in an appearance. Word was received at the Palmer House that the delegation would reach the city this morning. Mr. Angier, Chairman of the New York State Central Committee, was also expected, but he also failed to arrive, and the light, which it was hoped he would throw on the attitude of the New York delegation toward Cleveland, could not be obtained. The most important arrival of the day was General E. S. Briggs, of Wisconsin. It is not known that any of the delegations, except the Louisiana, will put in an appearance. A number of scattering delegates will put in their appearance. The California, Nevada and Utah delegates are expected to-morrow morning by the Rock Island Road, together with some twenty friends to the number of two hundred. Senator Dabney will also arrive to-morrow.

S. Corning Judd, before leaving for Peoria, engaged quarters at the Sherman House for Senator Bayard, and intended upon the latter's coming to Chicago. Mr. Judd telegraphed to know Mr. Bayard's intention as to coming, but it is not known if any reply has been received. General Rosecrans and General Farnsworth will stop at the Sherman.

A committee from the labor organizations of the city, with W. H. Mulken as spokesman, visited Colonel Plympton, General Butler's manager, last evening at the Palmer House to use known the value they regarding the general a reception upon his arrival in the city, which will be 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening by the Lake Shore Road. The following details were agreed upon: The committee will meet at the depot and be introduced by Charles H. Liebman, publisher of the Essex Statesman, a labor publication at Marblehead, Mass. They will escort Butler to the Palmer and will be joined by another committee, who will present to Butler a memorial and resolutions expressing the sentiments of the laboring men toward him. The workmen will form a procession in Market street near Madison, and with banners, torches, banners and transparencies will march through the principal streets to the Farmer House. Accompanying them will be the Chicago Butler Club, five hundred strong, carrying large flags, veterans who served under Butler in the army. On their arrival at the hotel it is expected that General Butler will appear and make known his appreciation of the demonstration in his behalf. Doubtless he will make a brief speech. Those in charge of the demonstration claim that they are trying to divest it of political significance and to make it simply a testimonial of the esteem in which Butler is regarded by the workmen. Word was received that the oil producers' association, with headquarters at Midburg, N. Y., would charter a train and come to Chicago to work in the interest of Butler's nomination.

J. J. Gibbons, private secretary to Hon. Roswell P. Flower, has taken possession of a suite of five rooms at the Grand Pacific Hotel, and will have the aid of General Lester B. Faulkner and Senator John C. Jacobs.

Democratic Senators, to the number of fifteen or twenty, intend to leave Washington for this city by special train on Saturday morning, whether Congress has adjourned or not.

REITER CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS.
ROSTON, July 2.—General Butler and the other members of the Massachusetts delegation will leave on Friday next in a special train for Chicago. General Butler assures his friends that he intends to receive the Democratic nomination, and will not entertain the thought of defeat. He does not expect the nomination to be made until after a good many ballots have been taken, when the candidates who at first received complimentary votes will drop out of the race. He has his own forces well in hand, and expects to gain steadily from the first ballot until the nomination is made. He appears to believe in the promises of anti-slavery which come to him from all parts of the country, and it is upon these he bases his confidence of receiving the nomination. He attaches no credit whatever to the reports that the Southern States will not support him. The Governor is not content with counting upon the support of the regular Democrats in the South, but claims that he will get a large share of the negro vote. In talking about this recently he said: "Do you think the negroes of the South forget who it was that first recognized them as 'contrabands' during the war and gave them the protection of the Union army?"

THE REVIEW.

THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1884.

Make Complaint.
Now and then we learn that a subscriber either fails to get his paper, or gets it late. It sometimes happens that the paper is unavoidably late in getting off the press, but not often. If a subscriber fails to get the paper early or to get it at all, we will esteem it a favor if complaint is made at the office at once. The paper should be delivered between 4 and 6 o'clock.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.
We are now in the last and liveliest half of the year of 1884. Watermelons are in the market. They come from the south. Excursion rates will be given on all the railroads to-morrow.

The first band concert of the season will be held at the city park this evening.

Bill Buchanan paid four dollars to a justice yesterday for fighting with Burdine Church.

The Wabash shops at Springfield were closed the first part of the week on account of a lack of work.

Eddie C. Hartup, a lad of fourteen, was drowned while bathing in Stony Creek, near Danville, on Tuesday.

Mr. S. W. Grosh, the popular agricultural dealer of Niantic, sold four harvestors on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

John Taming was fined $3 and costs yesterday by Squire Corley for drunkenness.

Flenny's corner window presents a beautiful and attractive appearance, it having been tastefully arranged with elegant goods.

The vicious snap of the fire cracker was heard on the air last evening. It will now continue without cessation until after the Fourth.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. William Carroll and Miss Nellie Curran, both well known young people of this city.

The dry goods merchants of this city will close their stores to-morrow for the entire day, and give the cute little counter jumpers a holiday.

The Wabash pay car which has been here since Monday, left yesterday for the west. While here the car had some repairs made on it.

The Methodist camp-meeting will be held at the fair grounds in August, commencing on the 23rd and continuing ten days. It will be a big affair.

Springfield's celebration commences to-day and will continue through to-morrow. The big feature will be the prize drill by the different military companies of the state.

John Koch, a German who had only been in this country a couple of years, was drowned in the Sangamon river near Petersburg, on Sunday. He had no relatives in America.

Three years ago yesterday the people of this country were thrown into a high state of excitement by the startling news of the assassination of President James G. Garfield, by Guiteau, the crank.

The St. Patrick's Total Abstinence Society, of this city, will go to Mattoon to-morrow, to attend the ceremony of laying the corner of a new Catholic church, to be erected in that city at a cost of some $40,000.

The Wabash railway will run an excursion from Springfield to this city next Sunday, to give all who desire a chance to spend a day at the prohibition camp-meeting. The fare from the State Capital here and return will be only 30 cts.

Willie, a five-year-old son of Mr. Wm. H. Gharrett, residing at No. 1110 East Sangamon street, cut his foot quite severely while playing with a sharp hatchet on Tuesday afternoon. Dr. W. B. Hostetter rendered the necessary surgical aid.

The public sale of the personal property of the late Geo. T. Outten, deceased, will take place at his late residence, near Mt. Zion, next Thursday, July 10th. The sale will embrace horses, mules, cattle, hogs, and a large stock of farming implements and machinery.

There will be an excursion to Dakota on July 14th, 15th and 16th. The P. D. & E. will sell round-trip excursion tickets to Bismarck, Mandan, La. Moore and Covington, Dakota, at less than half fare. For circulars and further information inquire of ticket agent. dtd

The internal revenue collections in the fifth district of Illinois for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, were $12,063,825.50, and for the same time in 1884, $13,086,358.37, a falling off of $927,267.13. Export shipments for the year were 25,866 packages, containing 2,161,040 gallons.

Gov. Hamilton has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the murderer of Frank M. Crooks, whose body was found in a pasture near Shelbyville on the morning of the 17th ult. Mr. Crooks was a merchant of that city, and his murder is enveloped in the deepest mystery.

Will Weber, the enterprising agent of the Anthony & Kuhn brewing company of St. Louis, is enjoying a boom in his business. He has already sold two car loads of beer this week, to-day he will receive two more. No one could look better to his employer's interest than Weber does.

We are requested to state that this evening will be "Ladies Evening" at the rooms of the Decatur Club, in Haworth Block, and that the elevator, which had not been in use since the recent accident at the water works, will be in complete working order and operation this evening for their accommodation.

Jonathan Carrier died at his home in Hickory township yesterday, of paralysis. He was forty-seven years of age, and his funeral will take place to-day from the Boiling Springs church, at four o'clock.

The Water street nine has accepted a challenge of the Diamond Cutters, of the First ward, and will play a game of ball north of the round house to-morrow. The game will be for a dollar a man, which will make the stakes nine dollars.

Sheriff Foster and Fred Mueller returned home yesterday from Joliet, having safely landed their prisoners in the penitentiary. While there they called on Griffin and Clark, and found both getting along as well as could be expected.

Misses Frances Thomas, Bertha Birt, Bertie Miller and a number of other young colored ladies held a picnic at Imboden's Springs yesterday, and entertaining their gentlemen friends in splendid style. In the evening the young folks were entertained at the residence of Mr. Albert Plunk.

Maj. F. J. McDonald, of the Army of the Potomac, is the proud and fortunate owner of the promising young horse, "Black Bart," one of the finest three-year-olds in the country. He showed his speed on the Bloomington road on Monday afternoon, and his "get there Eh!" step made the boys' eyes "stick out like poke-eyes." He downed them all.

Mrs. John H. Hall, the wife of the man who was recently sentenced by the Logan circuit court to a life of imprisonment for being concerned in the Mt. Pulis triple murder, is living quietly at the corner of Thirteenth and Adams street. She still solemnly asserts the entire innocence of her husband of that crime, and many believe her. --[Springfield Register.]

Another paper balloon was sent heavenward yesterday evening by Miller, the restaurant keeper. It moved rapidly to the southwest, having attained a high altitude. When a couple of miles west of the city, it suddenly started northward and traveled in that direction as long as the eye could define it against the sky. Many people watched it from the time of the ascension until it disappeared from sight.

Last night about 9 o'clock the barn in the rear of Mr. Amos Conklin's residence on Jackson street was discovered on fire. The fire companies were quickly on the spot, but their efforts to extinguish the flames were almost useless as they had gained great headway before the discovery of fire had been made. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Mr. Conklin is at the Mackinaw fishing, and his family is not at home.

To-morrow is the day when the small boy shooteth the cracker and maketh life a burden to everybody but deaf people; when the drummer-boy beateth the sheep-skin even unto death; when the plume of the militiaman wavereth in a line with the second story windows; when the gorgeous drum-major crusheth the heart of the susceptible maiden; when the brass musician cloaveth the general ear with a B-flat bugle; and when the gushing orator exalteth the republic and graspeth the American eagle by the tail.

Mr. John Chapman, whose horse was stolen from the hitch-rack at Boody on Saturday night, recovered the missing animal yesterday. She was lame, and the thief had evident ly made the discovery soon after leaving Boody, and turned her loose. She was taken up on Sunday morning by Mr. Robert McKim, a farmer residing a short distance this side of Macon, who came to town yesterday to advertise her, and met Mr. Chapman, the owner. Mr. McKim's promptness in reporting the capture is very commendable.

Patrick Haffey was arrested at the east end of the Wabash yards yesterday noon, for assaulting John Murphy, on Tuesday. He was taken before Squire Corley and his case continued until next Wednesday. His bond for his appearance at that time was fixed at fifteen hundred dollars, and in default of that sum he was sent to jail. The report that Haffey had fled and was last seen at Oakley, is denied. Murphy's condition was somewhat improved yesterday, but he was feeling terrible sore from the effects of the brutal kicks given him by Haffey.

Clarence McClelland passed the examination at Springfield yesterday before the State Board of Pharmacy and was granted a certificate as a registered pharmacist. The examination, which was very rigid, was conducted by Dr. Hermann Schroeder, of Quincy. There were thirty-two students present, but only about half of them succeeded in passing the examination. Clarence and his hosts of friends here, were greatly elated last evening over his success. It is something of an honor to pass the examination on the first trial. The majority of students fail two or three times before they succeed.

On Monday Squire McGorray had Fred. Holl before him for assaulting Albert Starbott, the Polander. The assault was committed last week and on Saturday Holl concluded the cheapest way out of the difficulty would be to appear before a justice and plead guilty to the charge and pay a fine. He went to Squire Albert and did this, but Starbott had sworn out a warrant for him before Squire Curtis and on Monday Holl was taken before Squire McGorray for a trial. He heard the case, but as Holl had appeared before Squire Albert and paid a fine, he decided to reserve his decision until Tuesday evening. At that time he rendered it, buting Holl $5 and costs. He gave it as his opinion that the case was not legally before the other justice, as the city was not represented at all, and no witnesses save one for the defense, were examined. He thinks the law permitting grand juries to hear but one side of a case does not apply to the lower courts.

PERSONAL.

Rev. William Bankston, of Blue Mound, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. D. S. Shellabarger left yesterday for a visit to Springfield.

J. H. Krebs has resigned his position at Heilman, Imboden & Co.'s grocery store and Vienna bakery, and will engage in the restaurant business at Marcott & Neibel's old stand.

Major Emory returned to Maroa yesterday morning. The candidacy to which he has just been appointed is one that he has aspired to for some time, and now that he has got it he ought to be satisfied.

D. L. Temple, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. rooms, will leave to-day for St. Louis, where his brother is lying ill. Mr. Temple has not resigned his position, but will return in a few weeks and resume his position.

DEMOCRATIC DOINGS.
Peoria, July 2.—The democratic state convention, which is the largest and most enthusiastic one ever held, convened here to-day, and was called to order by Hon. John E. Oberly, chairman of the state central committee at noon.

Major Henry C. Connelley, of Rock Island, was made temporary chairman and W. J. Mize, of Sullivan, secretary. Major Connelley made a brief address and feeling that he was unable to conduct the meeting resigned the gavel, and Mr. Oberly resumed the chairmanship. The convention remained in session until two p. m., when an adjournment was taken until four.

The delegates chosen to the National convention from the Fourteenth district, were A. E. Stevenson, of Bloomington, and C. A. Ewing, of Decatur.

THE DEATH KNEEL OF KING AL-COHO.

Is Being Sound at the Prohibition Camp-Meeting.

That's What The Orators Say, and They Ought to Know!

Yesterday's programme at the Great National Prohibition Camp-meeting embraced the promised prayer meeting and song service, and most excellent music by a juvenile choir, led by Prof. Lutz. The children have been under the tutelage of Prof. Lutz for some time, preparatory to taking part in the service on this occasion, and their performance yesterday reflected credit alike upon their preceptor and themselves.

After the song service, which was conducted by Mrs. Woodbridge, brief addresses were delivered by that celebrated lady, Rev. Jerold, of New York, and Dr. Newman, who supplemented his able address of the previous evening in a manner eminently worthy the world-wide reputation he enjoys as a thinker and orator.

It was intended to be a sort of "Children's Day," and the little folks were out in quite respectable numbers, but the attendance of adults was hardly up to expectation, and by no means in keeping with the ability of the speakers or the interest manifested in the cause by the prohibition workers who have labored so assiduously for the moral and financial success of the meeting.

The afternoon services were opened with prayer, singing by the children's choir, and a brief but well-timed and earnest address by Col. Felton, of Rochester, Sangamon county, Illinois. He was followed by Mr. Francis Murphy, whose address was a sort of review of his past life—his childhood, his early teachings and training, his emigration to America, his fall, and his ultimate reformation. His narrative was interspersed with some touches of tender sentiment, and spiced with a pretty liberal supply of Irish wit and humor.

Mr. Murphy was followed by Rev. H. W. Boole, of Brooklyn, who dealt out some very wholesome and heavy blows at the shallow pretensions and professions of designing politicians, and readily answered a number of questions propounded as to the feasibility of standing out for principle independent of the great political parties of the day—unless one or the other of them would sincerely and openly espouse the cause held so dear by the prohibitionists of the country—the absolute and unconditional abolition of the whisky traffic.

The services last evening consisted of the singing of a few songs by the choir, prayer by President Hancock, and another address by Francis Murphy. At the close of Mr. Murphy's address the pledge was presented to the audience and several signatures obtained.

The programme for to-day will be prayer meeting at 9:30 o'clock, led by Mrs. Lucy Simpson; at 10:30 addresses by Messrs. Frank J. Sabley, Grand Worthly Chief Templar of Nebraska, Uriah Copp, G. W. C. T. of Illinois, and Hon. George C. Christie, Grand Worthly Counselor of Illinois.

The evening's programme will consist of song service at 8:00 p. m., and addresses by Mrs. Woodbridge, Mrs. Simpson, and others.

NOTES.
Bro. Jake Hoesfater arrived yesterday to take part in the services at the fair grounds.

Rev. Dr. Newman left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, Kansas, where he is to speak to-morrow.

W. O'Brien, the noted Chicago criminal lawyer, will arrive on Saturday, and speak on Sunday.

Many temperance organizations from neighboring towns and cities are expected here next Sunday.

Francis Murphy will leave this morning for Independence, Iowa, where he is announced to speak on the glorious Fourth.

For clean cutting, plain, practical common sense, and the entire absence of anything like demagoguery, Rev. W. H. Boole, of Brooklyn, is entitled to the front rank among the temperance orators of the day.

The Good Templars of Springfield will be here next Sunday, to attend services at the prohibition camp-meeting. They will come by the Wabash railway in the morning, and their train will stop opposite the fair grounds to allow them to disembark, thus saving fare from the Union depot to the grounds, as well as delay in securing transportation. They will return home by special train on Sunday night.

Young Folks' Picnic.
A number of young folks participated in a picnic yesterday at Ray's Bridge, six and a half miles north-west of this city, the same being given by Miss Florence K. Inez, in honor of her friends, Misses Emma Feigert and Miss Lulu Adams, of Belleville, who have been visiting her for some time past. The party left this city at half past seven o'clock, going to their chosen spot in Vowall's commodious wagon. The first intention was to hold the picnic at Rhodes' mill, but on arriving there the party changed their minds and returned to Ray's Bridge, where a most delightful spot for a picnic was selected. The day was very pleasantly spent in games and feasting, the young ladies having prepared many dainty and inviting dishes to tickle the palate of those who attended. The party was composed of Misses Minnie Bachman, Mabel and Daisy Minnie Bachman, Westerns, Mary Roby, Enay Keel, Julia Hill, Florence Rainey, Emma Hamsher, Gertrude Whitall, Emma Feigert, Lulu Adams and Messrs. Charlie Laforgue, Lou Griswold, Charlie Denton, Rob. Root, Ralph Templeton, Leo Halldin, Elmer Dresbach and Tom Houck. The picnicers returned home about nine o'clock, with a sense of having enjoyed a day of genuine recreation and amusement.

JUDICIAL GRESHAM WILL QUIT THE CABINET.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The retirement of Judge Gresham from the Cabinet has been for some time quietly mooted. It is generally asserted that he has signified his willingness to accept the vacant United States Judgeship to succeed Judge Drummond. The President has tendered him the position, and in a few days his nomination, with that of his successor as Postmaster-General, will be sent to the Senate.

SENATE TO BE THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR.

The bill establishing the new Bureau of Labor Statistics became a law yesterday. This fact increased the eagerness with which the commission is being pressed. The leading candidates in the order in which they are said to stand now are John Barrett, of Pittsburgh; T. V. Powderly, of Scranton, and Miles Humphreys, of Pittsburgh. Charles L. Hill, of the State Department, the well-known scientific statistician, has been suggested to the President by distinguished New York merchants, who are friends of both gentlemen, as being just the man for the place, but he is considered too young to be given to such a responsible position. The position has a salary of $8,000 a year.

KELLOGG DENOUNCES WALSH'S STORY.

Ex-Senator Kellogg yesterday denounced before the Springer Committee yesterday and denied that he had in any way been guilty of bribery. He denounced the story in which he was reported to have told Walsh to put one-half of a certain amount to the credit of ex-Assistant Postmaster-General Barry. He said that he had never seen Barry, nor had he ever seen any money from him by any Star-route affidavits. He offered the committee all the letters and checks passed in the business transactions between himself and Walsh.

WILL NOT ALLOW THE TRAILS TO BE CLOSED.

Secretary Teller, having received intelligence that the American Stock Association had leased a strip of land in the Indian Territory on which were established cattle trails, and were offering armed resistance to herders who were traveling the trails, has ordered the Government to go to the scene of the trouble and put a stop to any attempt to close or disturb an established route.

SPREADING THE PLAGUE.

Infected Sailors Escape from Quarantine—Great Alarm at the French Capital.

Toulon, France, July 2.—The steamer Mistral arrived here yesterday from Marseilles with a case of cholera on board. The vessel was ordered to quarantine, but soon after the Captain and entire crew, including the sick man, abandoned her and took to the woods. Gendarmes are searching for them. Six deaths occurred here from six o'clock Tuesday night till noon yesterday. Many refugees are in the railway stations here. A transport has been sent from Italy to convey Italians to their native country. The disease has spread to villages in this vicinity and four deaths have occurred.

PARIS, July 2.—There were three deaths from cholera at Marseilles Monday night, and four at Toulon.

The railway stations in both cities are filled with refugees. Italy has sent a transport to take the Italians home from the plague-stricken cities.

Berlin, July 2.—Dr. Koch, the Chairman of the Cholera Commission, is about to leave for Paris and Toulon to offer his views to the French authorities and to determine the character of the epidemic.

SEVEN, July 2.—Vessels arriving at this port will be quarantined for ten days.

Marseilles, July 2.—The Spanish Government is disatisfied with the precautions taken by England against cholera. It has therefore ordered that all vessels arriving at Spanish Ports direct from England be detained three days; those from England by way of non-infected French ports be subject to seven days' quarantine; those by way of infected French ports to ten days; if they have a clean bill of health; if not, to fifteen days. The same conditions apply to vessels from England which take passengers, baggage or goods from vessels from France.

Marseilles, France, July 2.—Vessels arriving from infected ports are not allowed to land passengers here. Three deaths from cholera occurred Monday night and four yesterday. The rush from the city continues. Berthier, a Parisian actress, while taking part in a play in a theater here last night, heard that a spectator had been seized with cholera, and promptly fled. Paris between the scenes without changing her theatrical costume.

LYONS, France, June 2.—A case of cholera has occurred here, and intense alarm is felt in consequence.

Rome, July 2.—The Pope has ordered the members of the priesthood in all cholera-infected districts to remain at their posts, and has placed a fund at the disposal of Bishops in urgent cases of disease. A woman from Toulon died at Viminaglia yesterday of cholera.

PARIS, July 2.—Popular alarm over the condition of affairs at Toulon and Marseilles is increasing. Orders have been issued that all railroad travelers arriving at Paris shall be fumigated.

PARIS, July 2.—Dr. Koch, Chairman of the Cholera Commission, is about to start for Paris and Toulon, where he will offer his services to the French authorities to determine the character of the disease now prevalent in the south of France.

CUBA.

Minister Foster Officially Informed by the Spanish Authorities that the Island Is Not for Sale.

MADRID, July 2.—In the Senate, Prime Minister Castilo stated that Spain had absolutely no intention of selling Cuba.

An important interview took place yesterday between American Minister Foster and Prime Minister Castilo and Senor Elguero, the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

The Spanish Ministers showed a desire to arrive at an equitable commercial arrangement. Mr. Foster assured them that America was anxious to trade with Cuba, and as far as possible, would feel inclined to meet the views of Spain and Cuba. He declared that America had no desire to annex Cuba now, nor at any future time. America had no wish to assume further political responsibilities. He thought, however, that something must be done for Cuba quickly. Mexico is already importing sugar into America free. Unless Cuba and the English had similar equal terms it was evident their best market was lost.

In the Chamber of Deputies, Valdesera introduced a bill for the improvement of affairs in Cuba. The principal clause was a reduction of the export and import duties of the sugar and direct Spain to negotiate new treaties of commerce in Cuba's interest with foreign nations. The other clauses effect economic reforms in the Cuban customs and provide for the conversion of the Cuban debt.

A Young Man's Terrible Plight.

Pittsburgh, July 2.—A young man named John Donaldson, while walking along Ohio street, in Allegheny City Monday night, was suddenly attacked with all the symptoms of hydrophobia. He was removed to the Central Station, where it took five men to hold him. All night he howled and barked like a dog, frothed at the mouth and exhibited a deadly aversion to water. His physicians have no hope of recovery. Two years ago, in Portland, O., Donaldson was bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, but as the wound rapidly healed, no alarm was felt, and the victim thought no more about it.

Result of the Mexican Election.

NEW LAREDO, Mex., July 2.—The national election for President passed off quietly throughout this portion of Mexico. Porfirio Diaz had no opposition, and was overwhelmingly elected to the Presidency of Mexico for the second time. The elections which lately occurred correspond with the primary elections in the United States. Monday's election was by popular suffrage. The electors will meet at the capitals of their respective States on the second Sunday in July and cast the ballot for President.

Clingstone and Jay-Eye-See.

CLEVELAND, O., July 2.—The Cleveland Driving Park Company offers a $4,000 purse to Clingstone and Jay-Eye-See for a trot July 31, best three in five, the winner to take all the money. The entries to close July 8 must be accompanied by a $1,000 forfeit to go to the horse ready to start. If both appear, the forfeit will be refunded.

A Farmer Gored to Death.

SANDUSKY, O., July 2.—Monday while a farmer named John Cruik, who resided near here, was crossing one of his fields he was attacked by a vicious bull, which, enraged at the sight of Cruik's red shirt, rushed madly upon him and gored him to death. Cruik's body is in a horrible manner. Deceased was sixty years of age.

DEATH OF ALLAN PINKERTON

The Renowned Detective Passes Away at His Chicago Home—After a Long and Painful Illness.

A Brief Account of His Lengthy and Successful Fight with All Kinds of Crime.

A Glance at a Few of the Leading Cases Which Gained for Him His Notoriety.

A Remarkable Man Gone.

ALLAN PINKERTON'S LIFE ENDED.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Allan Pinkerton, the head and founder of the great Pinkerton National Detective Agency, died at his home, 554 West Adams street, at 2:05 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His death had been momentarily expected for some hours. His friends had given up all hope of his recovery some days before his death. He was sixty-five years old.

Allan Pinkerton was born in Glasgow in 1819, the son of a small tradesman. He married young and immediately after left for the Western hemisphere, landing in Canada. The young couple's early struggles were a series of hardships, and after many vicissitudes Pinkerton came to this city, where he engaged in the copper trade.

It was while he was thus engaged that Mr. Pinkerton showed his detective qualities and made a name in detective circles. Very little money was in circulation, and the Milwaukee Fire and Marine Insurance Company issued checks, which passed as currency. They were cheap affairs and easily counterfeited. The result was that numerous fraudulent checks were soon in circulation. Some of these forged checks came into his hands, and he resolved to bring the rascals to justice, which he finally did.

Mr. Pinkerton was appointed special agent of the Treasury Department under Secretary Guthrie in 1848, and was later made special mail agent. Here his detective experiences were more varied and won him fame. In 1854 his services were in such great demand throughout the country that he came to Chicago and established the Pinkerton Detective Agency, which, in its turn, has established branches at New York and Philadelphia with great success, and the men under his instructions worked wonders in unearthing criminals and criminal nets. His early detective work was marked by his conviction of Augustus Sturt and Lord Byron, and a nephew of Admiral Napier of the English Navy, for train-robbing and plundering the United States mails.

One of the most notable of Mr. Pinkerton's early cases was the arrest of Nathan M. money, agent of the Adams Express Company at Montgomery, Ala., who stole $40,000 from the company and ran away. After some months of labor Moneys was found and nearly all the money recovered from his hiding-place in a New Jersey farm-house. A little time afterward he ran down Andy and William Roberts and others, recovering $30,000 which they had stolen from an express car on the New Haven Railroad. While looking for incendiaries among the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Railroad in 1851 he discovered a plot to assassinate President Lincoln at Baltimore when he should pass through that city on his way to Washington to be inaugurated. Mr. Pinkerton carried the President through Baltimore in disguise and landed him safely in Washington. During the President's visit to Baltimore he was authorized by the President to organize the Secret Service Division of the Union Army. He served at its head under the name of E. J. Allen throughout the war.

After the close of the war Mr. Pinkerton resumed his private detective work. He secured the arrest and conviction of six thieves who stole $100,000 of the Adams Express Company from a train near Baltimore, recovering all the money.

He was later successful in recovering the $200,000 stolen from the Harlan & Phillips Bank, at Carbondale, Pa., by the Adams Express Company, on the New Haven Railroad; Myrta's Bank, at Scranton, Pa., and the perpetrators of the Madison River Railroad robbery, in which $200,000 was stolen from the Merchant's Union Express Company. In the same year (1858) Mr. Pinkerton arrested the four Reno brothers and Charles Anderson, express robbers who had terrorized the whole country around Seymour, Ind., where they lived. One of their acts was the robbery of an express car of $97,000 near Osgood Station, Ind. On their arrest they were placed in jail at New Albany. Assailed men offered a reward of $10,000 for their capture and a reward of $10,000 for their capture.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. John Pinkerton, whom he married on leaving his home in Scotland. Three children survive of the eight who were born to them. They are William A. Pinkerton, the eldest, who has charge of the Chicago office of the agency; Robert A. Pinkerton, General Superintendent, with immediate charge of the Eastern offices, and Mrs. Mary, wife of William J. Chalmers, of Chicago. Mr. Pinkerton was quite wealthy, owning much valuable real estate, besides his elegant residence and magnificent country place.

Forthcoming National Military Reunion.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 2.—Preparations are making on an extensive scale for the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee at Lake Minnetonka August 13 and 14. The coming meeting will probably be the most notable ever held by the society. General Sherman will preside. General Grant has signified his intention to be present for perhaps the last time, and to deliver what may be his farewell address to the army and people. The annual orator will be delivered by Colonel Oza Dodds, and the banquet will be given by some of the most noted poets and orators of the country.

Heavy Hail After Intense Heat.

INDIANAPOLIS, N. Y., July 2.—After an exceedingly hot day, a rain and hail storm, terrific in force, and gathering all the afternoon, struck this village last night. Water fell in sheets, flooding the streets. The principal streets are filled with fallen trees. No lives were lost.

Aristocratic Cubans Fined.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Senator Ramon Barranto, Chief of the Supreme Court of Cuba, his nephew, Alonzo Barranto, and Francisco Figueroa were arrested last night for disorderly conduct, and yesterday they were fined $10 each.

Boston Debt Increasing.

BOSTON, July 2.—The debt of Boston increased $1,485,677 during the year.
